Let's Talk: Communicate on the Run

Simple modification DYNAMIC results! Through simple modification and design this activity page set not only allows you to participate in everyday conversations, but also in actions or activities as they happen! With the simple addition of a "white board" space, communication partners can easily add simple vocabulary through doodles or quick illustrations that will allow users to comment on whatever occurs. This page set provides vocabulary for communication in school, home, doctor's office, and more!
